SPLIT OF MINERS IS AVERTED

Illinois Workers Will Join Strike,
Farrington Says

HARDING MAY ACT TODAY

Daugherty Determined to Nip
Any Violence

CLEVELAND — (United Press)
—Danger of a split in the ranks of the United Mine Workers of America, was averted today.

Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, who has been holding out for separate state
wage negotiations with operators,
told members of the mine
policy committee meeting here Illinois miners would strike with other bituminous workers April 1.

"We're going to strike April 1,
and we're going to keep on striking
until some of the others holler," said Farrington.

Farrington also exploded the fear
of international officers that the Illinois miners might break with the main body and prevent the strike
call for April 1.

The Illinois chief also denied a report that the Illinois miners had come to any kind of an agreement with the operators. He said there would be no agreement. He charged that the reports to the contrary were being circulated in an attempt to cause a break among the miners.

HARDING MAY ACT

WASHINGTON — (United Press)
—The coal strike situation developed into a triangular deadlock today
with the hands of the government,
the miners and operators hopelessly tied.

There is no road open to the government thru which a settlement of differences can be arranged, officials unanimously admitted.

President Harding at the cabinet meeting today may decide whether to issue a public appeal to the bituminous operators and miners. Cabinet members are split on the issue.

The general attitude of all government officials is "wait until the strike occurs and then we will act."

Attorney General Daugherty is determined to tolerate no hint of violence.
Secretary of the Treasury Mellon believes financial activity of the nation need not fear the walkout.

OVERTURE CONSIDERED

INDIANAPOLIS — (United Press)
—The six-hour day and five-day
week demand of 500,000 coal miners, ordered to strike April 1,
will be dropped as their first peace
overture, it bituminous mine owners
consent to inter-state wage conference, according to belief expressed today at United Mine workers headquarters here.

U. S. ACTION URGED

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — President Harding and his cabinet were urged in a telegram sent to the White House today by Representative Upshaw, Democrat,
Georgia, to take action to compel mine operators to meet the miners in a wage conference before the present contract expires on March 31.
In event of refusal of the operators to do so, for the government to take over the mines and operate them until the operators agree to such conference.

MINES CLOSED

PITTSBURGH, Pennsylvania —
(Associated Press) — Thirty mines in the Monongahela bituminous district will be closed tomorrow after the men have been paid a survey of the field developed today. Operators said that while they have been pushed to capacity to fill demands
during the past few weeks in anticipation of a coal strike, their contracts have been filled. Some mines,
it was said, had closed a coal association already had closed and suspension in the Scotts Run field,
the most active in the district would likely be complete by tomorrow night.

Provisions Are Stricken From

WASHINGTON — (Associated

propriation bill, which would have required the withdrawal of certain regular army troops from China,
Hawaii, the Panama Canal Zone and Germany by July 1, were eliminated
from the measure today by the house.

TWO MEMBERS OF THE BULGARIAN CABINET QUIT

SOFIA, Bulgaria. — Two members of the cabinet have resigned as the result of differences in the ministry
over the government's determination to eliminate one letter from the Bulgarian alphabet, which was announced several weeks ago.

M. Tourlakoff gave up the portfolio of finance and M. Omurtechev that of education. It is expected that the ministry will be rapidly reconstructed, M. Stamboulisky continuing his premier.

NEW TRIAL GRANTED IN EXTORTION CASE

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio — Joseph W. Wess, convicted of extortion last November
when former Safety Director David Scott and other city officials were convicted of bribery and other charges,
today was granted a new trial by the appellate court here. Wess, who had offices in city hall, tho not a city official, was charged with obtaining money from an alien on promise to get the man's brother out of Ellis island. The appellate court today held that the verdict was against the weight of evidence. Wess had not been conducted his own trial
last fall. He is owner of the house was born, and admits visitors for a

TREATY WILL BE RATIFIED TODAY

All Amendments and Reservations Being Voted Down

MAJORITIES OVERWHELMING

Party Lines Drawn—Few Democrats With Underwood

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — A long succession of proposed amendments and reservations
to the four-power Pacific treaty
were voted down one after another
by the senate today as it approached
a final roll call on ratification.

For the most part the majorities were overwhelming and virtually coincident with party lines. Only a handful of Democrats stood with their titular leader, Senator Underwood of Alabama, against the effort
to qualify the ratification resolution and only the little group of irreconcilables opposed the Republican leadership of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts to vote with the reservationists.

The strength recorded for the proposed qualifying declarations
hovered close to thirty on succeeding roll calls, but was not sufficient to rattle the confidence of the two party chiefs, both of whom were members of the American arms delegation, that the final cut on ratification later in the afternoon would show a safe margin over the necessary two-thirds. There was little of the usual last minute maneuvering
to change the result.

BIG CROWD LOOKS ON

The voting proceeded without debate, under an unanimous consent agreement which cut off discussion
with the adjournment of the senate
last night after a final dramatic summing up of the arguments for and against the treaty. With upwards of a score of amendments and reservations to be acted upon however, it was apparent that the final ratification vote might be delayed
several hours.

One of the largest crowds to be attended by a senate session in recent years looked down on the final scene of the bitter treaty fight from packed benches and jammed the corridors
of the capitol hoping to get a peep
inside the senate chamber.

The first qualifying declaration to be voted down was an amendment by Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas, which would have pledged the treaty signatories against "any secret treaty, arrangement or understanding with any other power or powers during the life of this treaty."

PARTY LINEUP

The vote was 32 to 61. Six Democratic senators—Dial, South Carolina, Myers, Montana, Pomerene, Ohio, Ramsdell, Louisiana; Underwood, Alabama, and Williams, Mississippi, voted against the amendment
and four Republicans, Senator France, Maryland; Johnson, California; La Follette, Wisconsin and Borah, Idaho, supported it.

No further amendments were offered to Article One of the treaty and on roll call the article was approved in committee of the whole 74 to 15. Opposition leaders said the division did not represent the strength that would be shown on final ratification since many senators based their opposition on other sections of the treaty.

THOSE WHO VOTED AGAINST ARTICLE ONE

Those who voted against Article One
were Senators Ashurst, Arizona; Culberson, Texas; Gerry, Rhode Island; Harris, Georgia; King,
Utah; Reed, Missouri; Robinson,
Arkansas; Sheppard, Texas; Shields, Tennessee; Stanley, Kentucky and Watson, Georgia. Democrats, and Borah, Idaho; France, Maryland;
Johnson, California and La Follette,
Wisconsin, Republicans.

VOTE ON ARTICLE TWO

Senator Robinson then offered and the senate rejected an amendment to Article Two pledging the signatories against aggression against any outside power and giving outside powers the right to call a conference affecting their interests.

The vote on this amendment was

"THE BEST POKER FACE IN AMERICA"

NEW YORK — "The best poker face in America"—that phrase best describes Tex Rickard, prize fight promoter on trial, charged with mis-treating little girls who visited his mammoth swimming pool in Madison Square Garden.

ALIBI CLAIMED BY TEX RICKARD

Not At Place Mentioned in Assault Charge, Lawyer Says

NEW YORK — (Associated Press)
—Opening the doors of Tex Rickard, charged with criminally assaulting 15-year-old Sara Schoenfeld, counsel for the sport promoter
today told the jury that a perfect alibi would be proved for November 12, 1921, the date of the alleged offense.

Max Steiner, chief defense counsel, also set forth that the two apartments on West Forty-seventh street mentioned in connection with the case, had been rented by Rickard
while he was arranging the Dempsey-Willard fight in Toledo to store
his liquor, because he saw prohibition coming.

Rickard, Steiner said, never had been in the suites in his life, and had gone to the apartment houses themselves only twice, to ascertain
from the janitor that his cellars
were o. k.

MOTORING DENIED
Rickard's counsel denied that the promoter ever had gone motoring
with either Sara or 12-year-old Nellie Gasko, corroborating witness for the prosecution. Steiner said his client knew nothing of the two girls except that Sara once had come to Madison Square Garden with her mother to enlist his aid in obtaining the release of her brother imprisoned in Milwaukee.

Outlining the defense, Steiner
said that the prosecution would have to prove the offense occurred on the night of November 12, 1921, between 7:30 o'clock and 10
o'clock, according to the story told by the girls. Alibi Rickard never kept a diary, Steiner added he could always recall the past by looking at the record of events that had taken place at the garden, and with a glance at these records to refresh
his memory, the promoter recalled that November 12 was no ordinary day in his life.

MOVEMENTS OF DAY

Steiner said he would show that in the morning Rickard went to the garden. That at 1:30 o'clock he

$8,000 RETURNED

Ransom Paid for Preacher Sent Back to Church

CHICAGO — (Associated Press)
—The $8,000 ransom recently paid by the Methodist Mission Conference at Fochow, China, to General Ma Pu-Yun, of the Peking government, for the life and liberty of a native district superintendent of the organization, has been returned, according to a cablegram just received from Fisher P. T. Kenney, of China. It was learned here today thru the committee on conversion and advance.

The arrest and incarceration of Rev. Sik I. Siong, of Yungchun, Fu-kien province, about 100 miles south of Fochow, was caused by General Ma Pu-Yun, who was avowedly anti-Christian. The general tried to take away the lands held by the mission and demanded $10,000 for the person of Rev. Mr. Sik.

His military doctor, Liu, obtained genence against Rev. Mr. Sik by Franco, and threatened to cause Chinese soldiers to assault foreigners. The sum of $8,000 was accepted by the general and Rev. Mr. Sik released.

Thru the American consul at Fochow and the expected visit of a destroyer flotilla to that port, the Methodists finally succeeded in getting General Ma dismissed and the ransom returned. The mission, which operates under specific treaty rights, was able to prove conspiracy to blackmail and extortion, formed before the northern troops marched into the province.

HOMES WRECKED BY DELUGE

Water Reaches Depth of 10 Feet
in Kansas Town

PROPERTY DAMAGE HIGH

Stocks of Merchandise Are Swept Away

BURLINGTON, Kas. — (United Press) — Four persons dead and $1,- 000,000 property damage was the toll estimated today from a cloudburst here last night. The water reached a depth of ten feet thru principal business streets of Burlington.

Rain that literally fell in sheets
and totalled more than ten inches
by early today inundated practically all the business section.

A water wall came into the town
from Rock Creek, a so-called "dry stream," swept away 25 or more dwellings and carried wreckage, automobiles, small buildings and livestock on its crest as it smashed
into the main part of town.

A score of business houses were inundated. Merchandise stocks were washed out into the streets and the walls of several buildings caved in.

HEROINES OF DISASTER

The electric light plant was put out of commission with the first rush of water and drenched survivors
huddled in buildings all night.

The dead included Miss Oletha Sailing, 18, whose body was found floating down Main-st. Bodies of Mrs. Henry Ramsdell and Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGee, who are reported drowned, had not been found.

The water was receding rapidly early today and it was believed the worst of the flood was over. Relief workers were arriving from surrounding cities.

Rescue parties also worked amid the wreckage of the 20 or more dwellings, near where the five-foot wall of water from Rock Creek first hit the town in an effort to learn if more persons were dead or injured.

Brunt of the damage was borne by three blocks in the business section, where stocks of merchandise were destroyed, walls caved in and buildings were otherwise damaged.

Water that remained in streets
today ranged from a foot to waist deep.

All wire communication Burlington had with the outside was cut off today.

The above dispatch from Burlington was obtained by the United Press thru the radio station of the Kansas City Post working via a relay radio station at Emporia, Kan.

LINCOLN'S PARENTS LEGALLY MARRIED -- TRUTH AT LAST ABOUT STATESMAN'S ANCESTORS

Dr. William E. Barton, of Oak Falls, Ill., is recognized as the greatest authority on Abraham Lincoln. He has spent much of his life delving into original sources of Lincoln's life and has written the author of several books on the subject. He is now president of the Abraham Lincoln Association, which is known as "The Sons of Abraham Lincoln."

BY WILLIAM E. BARTON

ABRAHAM LINCOLN lived and died not knowing whether his parents, Thomas and Nancy Lincoln, had ever been legally married.

Those who knew him intimately
believed that this haunting uncertainty was one cause of his periodic melancholy, a sadness so deep that when he was in his black possession,
"gloom dripped from him as he walked."

He made some ineffectual attempts to learn the truth, and gave it up; he learned nothing, and his inquiry started ugly rumors.

He thought he had found the record of the marriage of his parents in Hardin Co., Kentucky, in which he was born, and at whose

county seat, Elizabethtown, his parents were living when his older sister was born. The records showed his father's second marriage; that to Sarah Bush Johnston, but not his first marriage to Nancy Hanks.

ABANDONED SEARCH
Abraham Lincoln gave up the inquiry, and there was what was called a "significant reserve" in his conversation about his parents.

He believed in them, but he did not know.

It would have cheered his heart
could he have known the truth
which this story contains.

In 1874, William F. Booker, county clerk of Washington Co., Kentucky, found in his records a marriage bond dated June 10, 1806, between Thomas Lincoln and Nancy Hanks, and also a return of 16 marriages alleged to have been performed in the years 1806 and 1807
by Rev. Jesse Head, a Methodist minister, including that of "Jesse Lincoln and Nancy Hanks, June 12, 1806."

But who was Jesse Head? Authorities in the Methodist church could not find no record of him, and it was freely charged that this record was a forgery, trumped up to give color to legality to the regular relations of the parents of Lincoln,

that there had been a man named Jesse Head, or if there were such a man, he was not a Methodist preacher.

FACTS DISCOVERED

"After a search of years, in which I have been aided by Joseph Polin,
county attorney of Washington Co., L. S. Pen-a, of Lebanon, Ky., and Miss Mary A. Stephenson, of Harrdsburg, Ky., I am able to give the facts in full."

"The Journal of the Western Conference for the years of 1800-1811"
has recently been published in Nashville, and it shows what is so far as I know, the only ecclesiastical record
of Jesse Head. On October 2, 1806, Bishop Ashby presided at the conference held at Anthony Huston's
in Scott Co., Kentucky, and Jesse
Head was reported as a deacon.

Of the legal status of his authority as a minister, there is this record, discovered by Mr. Pence, in a list of courts-martial of the militia of Washington Co. from 1776 to 1812.

"May 25, 1798, Jesse Head, returned as delinquent, is cleared off muster roll, he having a license to

PHOTOGRAPH OF DRAWING OF JESSE HEAD

preach according to the rules of the sect to which he belongs."

This settles both his legal and ecclesiastical status. To tell how the other information was "up in many and remote places" would be too long a matter for this story.

HEAD'S HISTORY

But here are the facts about him.
Jesse Head's home was on Road
Run, now known as Lincoln Run, in Washington Co., Kentucky. He was neighbor to the Vincennes and Berries,
and it was probably this fact, and no denominational relationship, that caused him to perform the marriage.

He was a cabinet maker and "justice of the peace."

Year by year Jesse Head turned in his lists of marriages performed,
a dozen or more at a time, not by calendar years but in convenient groups.

His last signature on the Washington Co. records is dated October 10, 1810, when he signed the court order as "justice of the peace." At that time he had given up his home in the village and was living on his farm.

But his name immediately reappears, and that on the records of Harrodsburg, the oldest town in Kentucky. He bought a lot there in March, 1810. On October 11, 1811, he was elected to fill a vacancy on the town board. He continued one of the town trustees until 1815 when he resigned, and apparently lived out of town; but he was re-elected in 1819 and again at intervals until 1827. Frequently he presided at the board meetings, and often acted as clerk, many pages of the records being in his handwriting.

NOT REGULAR PREACHER

He seems to have done a good deal of preaching, but never, so far as any records thus far are discovered, as a regular pastor. At one time he preached steadily in Lexington, but does not seem to have lived there, unless it was in one of the intervals in which his name disappears from the Harrodsburg records.

He had a carpenter shop opposite the courthouse, and was within easy reach of couples coming to secure their marriage licenses.

It is reported that Jesse Head was a strong opponent of slavery. I have not been able to confirm this report.
He was an opponent of Henry Clay,
and was a good, hard-hitting Democrat. In 1830 he edited a newspaper, called the American Harrodsburg, had a Whig paper called the Union. The two papers were not on good terms.

There exists but one likeness of Jesse Head, a drawing in the Durrert collection, which I have been permitted to photograph. How accurate a likeness it is, I do not know; but it is the best we have.

HEAD BRAVE MAN

Jesse Head was a brave man. He had frequent controversies, and was a straight out hitter in argument.
One day a man with whom he was on bad terms stood watching him
as he passed toward the courthouse,
and after Head had gone by, fired
a shot which missed the minister.
Head at once turned back, and confronting the man with the smoking
pistol said, "If you fired that shot to kill me, you are a coward; if you did it to frighten me, you are a fool."

Jesse Head died March 23, 1842, in his 74th year. He was buried in Harrodsburg. I have just visited Harrodsburg, and the grave of Jesse Head is unmarked.

This article builds no monument
to Jesse Head, tho he deserved one;
but it attempts to rescue from oblivion an honored name, and one that stands in intimate association
with that of Abraham Lincoln.

MRS. CARL GOES ON TRIAL IN MAY

Former Ohio Woman Charged With Murder in Indiana

ACCUSED OF KILLING TWO

Death of Husband, Father-in-Law Laid at Her Door

GREENFIELD, Ind. —This whole region is eagerly awaiting the trial of Mrs. Clara Carl on a charge of laying here early in May. Prosecutor Waldo C. Gling hopes to prove at that trial that Mrs. Carl is a modern woman bluebeard. Gling will charge that Mrs. Carl killed her husband and father-in-law with slow poison with the cold aim of getting out of her financial straits. But Mrs. Carl will maintain her innocence. Her attorneys say they will show her as a loving wife and devoted daughter-in-law, the innocent victim of an unusual train of circumstances.

Meanwhile Mrs. Carl, 38, attractive and well educated, peers from behind the bars of the Hancock jail here, following a formal charge of slaying against her by a Hancock grand jury. And Prosecutor Gling has caused the body of Robert Gibson, a former husband of Mrs. Carl, to be exhumed from a cemetery in Nelsonville, O., and the internal organs examined for traces of poison. If the analysis shows poison, it may result in Mrs. Carl's being held for a third killing.

Here is the story of Mrs. Carl's life, as unweaved by the authorities here. Mrs. Carl, whose maiden name was Clara Green, was the daughter of a New Staunton, O., farmer. Robert Gibson was the son of a New Staunton, O., farmer and was a teacher in the village school.

Clara and Gibson were childhood sweethearts. On March 14, 1908, the two eloped and were wed. They moved to Cleveland, where Gibson continued teaching and Clara became a newspaper writer.

Soon Clara and Gibson began traveling about from town to town, writing histories of the towns and selling the books by subscription. Gibson went, unaccompanied, to his wife's home in Staunton, O., on business. His wife, Clara, came to visit him.

Shortly after her arrival the prosecutor charges, Gibson was seized with an unusual illness and died. In September of the same year, Clara, now a widow, met Frank Carl at Seneca, Kas. They were married soon after.

Clara and Carl went to New Philadelphia, Ind., and made their home there. They invited Carl's father, Alonzo Carl, 85, to live with them. He accepted.

Shortly after his arrival at New Philadelphia the elder Carl became violently ill and died July 3, 1921. Carl took his father's body to New Philadelphia, Kas., where the father-in-law had lived, for burial. Clara did not go.

Carl, the prosecutor says, had always been known as a man of perfect health and powerful physique. But after his return from New Philadelphia, he became thin and pale, the prosecutor charges.

He continued to fail. His skin became drawn. He suffered cramps in the calves of his legs. On August 7, 1921, Carl died. A shower of letters poured in on authorities demanding an investigation of the mysterious deaths.

CHARGES FOR POISON FOUND. Examination of the bodies of Carl and his father, Prosecutor Gling declares, "showed they contained enough arsenic to kill a dozen men." The prosecutor charges Mrs. Carl poisoned the elder Carl that his small estate might be inherited by her husband and then poisoned her husband that the estate might revert to her together with $2000 of fraternal order insurance and other possessions of Carl.

Mrs. Carl also secured $3000 in life insurance from Gibson, her first husband, the prosecutor contends. The nature of Gibson's death was identical with that of the deaths of Carl and his father, Gling now seeks to prove.

Asked for a statement at the Hancock jail here Mrs. Carl said: "I am not guilty of all this. I loved my family always."

And Mrs. Carl's attorney added: "The woman is innocent. It will be shown that Alonzo Carl committed suicide."

THUNDERSTORMS ARE PROGRAMED

It doesn't require an optimist to entertain a belief that spring is now here to stay, unless perchance, there should be a temporary setback in the form of a "norther." featured by chill blasts and possibly a little more snow. But it isn't likely. Garden planning goes right along uninterruptedly, but little or no actual work in the open has been accomplished. The rain-soaked ground cannot be prepared for garden truck growing. And there's more of it coming.

Showers and probably thunderstorms tonight and Saturday is the forecast. Not much change in temperature. Strong easterly winds in extreme north portion.

Birdy chicks are "sprouting" with rapidly in the various hatcheries about Lima and the outlook is strong for bigger flocks than heretofore. As feed prices have lowered weather conditions are exceptionally propitious for the shipments of the little "peepers" long distances in their cartons of cardboard.

EXTRADITION IS SOUGHT FOR RETURN OF ATKINSON TO FACE CHARGES HERE

Police Captain George Strick left Friday to bring James C. Atkinson, former Sunday school superintendent of Christ Episcopal church back to Lima to face trial.

Strick will first go to Columbus to secure requisition from Governor Harry L. Davis, requesting that Governor Len Small, of Illinois issue extradition papers for Atkinson.

Atkinson is in Chicago, and will be brought here after a hearing on a writ of habeas corpus is heard, March 25.

He is charged with embezzling funds belonging to the Parmenter Printing company and the Franklin Type & Printing company.

NEW PARTNERSHIP FORMED TO HANDLE INSURANCE AND FARM LOANS IN 5 COUNTIES

Announcement was made Friday by W. T. Feely, district agent of the Union Central Life Insurance Co., of the formation of a partnership and change of the firm's name. Henceforth the organization will be known as Feely, Welherill & Welherill.

Carl Welherill, formerly cashier of the Citizens' bank of Spencer, Ohio, formerly in securities business in Toledo, now are associated with Feely. Both will reside here, Carl already having brought his family to Lima.

The firm will handle life insurance and take care of the Union Central farm loan business in this territory. It has five counties, Allen, Van Wert, Auglaize, Mercer and Putnam. The new firm will retain the offices at 408 American Bank building.

LIMA MOVIE FILM TO BE SHOWN AT LYRIC, SUNDAY

"Along Came Jack," Lima's home talent movie, is being cut and assembled in sequence by Director Row. The films were returned from Chicago Friday, where they had been shipped, for development.

The initial showing of the film will be at the Lyric Sunday. Practically every inch of the film came out perfectly when developed.

Action in the pictures and the entire setting is familiar to everyone in Lima. The picture will be shown for a week at the Lyric.

TRAFFIC VIOLATION

W. A. Hellock, 39, of 334 W. Kirby-st., pleaded guilty to parking his auto without a tail light and was fined $1 in criminal court Friday.

DIVORCE GRANTED

Mrs. Carrie Wallace Spurr Wins Decree From R. L. Spurr

Mrs. Carrie Wallace Spurr, stewardess at the Knights of Columbus dining room, was granted a divorce from R. L. Spurr, following a hearing in common pleas court. Spurr was dismissed by the court.

Alimony to be granted Mrs. Spurr is to be announced later by Judge Becker. He has that feature of the case under consideration.

Spurr, in his action for divorce, charged that his wife left him to cook his own meals and those of her two sons by a former marriage.

He charged she secured a long list of chattels upon his credit and that he was unable to pay the bills.

Mrs. Spurr, in her answer, declared her husband refused to support her and that she was forced to seek work to maintain herself and two sons.

The case has been pending several months. The Spurrs lived together only a short time following their marriage. Mrs. Spurr has been contented for the second time, having been divorced from the first husband after her first husband had been sent to the penitentiary for non-support of his two sons.

ROUGH HOME FROM SOUTH; WILL SEEK EARLY HEARING OF POLICE CHIEF OUSTER

Former Chief of Police O. J. Roush has returned from Palm Beach, Florida, and Friday announced his intention of securing an early hearing of his case in common pleas court.

Roush spent six weeks in the south, working as a detective in one of the large winter hotels. He rected the operations of a number of other hotels, who watched the hotel and grounds for law violators.

The season on the Florida east coast closed Thursday night, Roush said.

H. MURR IS TAKEN ON CHARGE OF MOTOR THEFT

Charged with stealing a small electric motor, H. Murr, 39, of 229 Pearl-st., was arrested by Patrolman R. J. Watkins on N. Central-av., Friday at 7:30 a. m.

The warrant against Murr had been on file since October. It alleges he stole the motor the night of September 17, 1921, from ex-Mayor Miles Standish, who swore out the warrant.

According to police, the motor was taken from the Chi-Namel Advertising company store, W. Wayne-st., and is valued at $50.

BOTKIN IS CALLED TO TOLEDO IN SIMES TRIAL

Ernest M. Botkin, justice of the peace, was summoned to Toledo in the trial of Ralph Simes, of Sidney, which is being conducted there on a charge of illegally possessing and transporting liquor.

Simes, Kinsey Dormire and Joe Gordon, arrested here last August while reporting an alleged holdup at police headquarters, were brought before Judge Botkin when arraigned. Simes is the last of the trio to be tried.

KITES SOARING; SPRING IS HERE

Infallible signs of spring, newly come, are to be seen most everywhere. One of the most emphatic of these is the appearance of kites in the air, sent up by small boys, who are now dividing their time between baseball, marbles and kites. Marbles come first as a spring pastime, then baseball quickly followed the "kite fever." Any youngster who doesn't become enraptured over one or more of these diversions at this time of the year is not considered exactly normal.

Youth comes but once; Young America finds outlet for its enthusiasm in outdoor pastimes of a strenuous character with the first indications of spring.

ARBITRATION BOARD MAY UNGINNE AFFAIRS OF 'M'GINN, "SUIT CLUB KING"

An arbitration board, composed of Judge Emmett J. Jackson, Chester Cable and James Morlon, may be called to settle the tangled affairs of Ed McGinn, "suit club king," arrested Thursday, while preparing to leave the city, it is asserted.

McGinn is out on $25 bond and desires to reimburse members of the club. His operations here covered a long period of time and once caused an investigation by Prosecutor Eugene Lippincott, it is alleged.

A laboring man who had paid in $11, was leaving the city and asked for his money. He was refused, he told the authorities. Pressure from the prosecutor's office, it is said, forced McGinn to give the laborer a pair of trousers.

NO TAGS—COST $3

G. P. Thomas, 37, of 849 W. Wayne-st., admitted his guilt Thursday to a charge of driving his car without license tags and drew $5 in criminal court.

TWO WELLS SHOT

15-Bbl Producer on Miller Farm—Spillacy Venture Completed

A 15-barrel producer was brought in on the Miller farm, seven miles northeast of the city at 10 a. m. Friday by C. J. Neal, Spencerville driller. Oil was found at a 1340 foot level. A torpedo loaded with explosives was detonated in the well.

The rush of petroleum that followed the shot indicates a pumper of about 15 barrels a day, oil men say. Further development may show the flow to be much stronger.

At noon Friday a test well on the Spillacy lease was shot, scores of persons from Lima gathering to see the result.

Oil bearing sand was encountered by the drillers Thursday, and the shot is expected to show good production.

WOMEN FORFEIT BOND

Margaret Dixon, 29, 220 S. Central-av., and Ruth Fridleson, 18, of the same address, arrested Thursday night on E Market-st on a charge of disorderly conduct, each forfeited $25 bond in criminal court Friday morning.

BONUS BILL NOW UP TO SENATE

Measure Passed by House May Die in Upper Chamber

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Passed by the house late yesterday by a vote of 323 to 70, the soldiers' bonus bill was made ready today for the senate. What would happen to it there was regarded as problematical, but house proponents proposed to use every effort to prevent it from being shelved, as was the original bonus measure.

In the long debate which preceded the final vote in the house, some speakers predicted that the senate would kill the bill, while others apparently were not over-optimistic as to the chances of its passage in its present form. Whatever its ultimate fate, it appeared fairly certain that the bill would slumber for quite a while at the other end of the capital, where already the calendar is congested with treaties and annual supply bills with the permanent tariff bill yet to be reported.

There were those who believed that the senate finance committee, to which the bill would be referred in the natural course, would make sharp changes in it. Some administration officers were known to look to the senate to pass a measure providing means for financing the bonus, but they were not prepared to predict whether the means would be taxes or the use of foreign bonds.

PASTOR AND VESTRY OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH SET EASTER GOAL AT $4,000

Rev. Kirk B. O'Ferrall, rector of Christ Church, Episcopal, and the vestry of the church, have asked for an Easter offering of $4,000, the amount of $2,750 of which is to be used to reduce the church debt of $15,000. The remaining $1,250 will be needed by the parish treasurer to pay current expenses during the summer months.

The rector and vestry are anxious to cancel the church debt. They are anticipating soon the purchase of a new pipe organ, the old one having outlived its usefulness. It is stated rooms for the church school in the parish house and a larger building for housing the various activities, is planned.

TAKEN 175 TIMES ON RUM CHARGE

Death of Kentuckian Ends Strange Feud With U. S.

MADE HIS CELLS MODERN

Frequent Dry Law Violator Tho Total Abstainer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (Associated Press)—A strange feud with the government that had lasted many years was ended here by the death of Peter Bitzer, the chief factor in this unique drama of life. Bitzer was arrested on an average of every 32nd day of his life of 71 years. He openly violated the law to avenge a fancied wrong by the United States government almost half a century ago, and not for the profit there was in it, according to his friends. It is said that, on the contrary, Bitzer persisted in his illegal acts altho they were slowly depleting his small fortune and that while arrested nearly 175 times for violating the prohibition law, he was always a total abstainer.

CAUSE OF FEUD

When a young contractor just starting out in life, he was security for another contractor on a piece of government work in the Louisville harbor. A flood on the Ohio river swept away the work, so the story goes, and Bitzer was held to his bond. This was said to have ruined him financially. Legal battles over the case for many years ended only in disappointment for Peter and he is said never to have become reconciled to the justice of the government's action.

Bitzer's first effort to retaliate came when he attempted to evade the tax on oleomargarine. For this offense he served a year in prison. When national prohibition came into being, Bitzer repeatedly violated the law, it is alleged. He was arrested more than 175 times, frequently convicted, but generally escaping with a fine. He, however, served several short prison sentences, but always in cells which he had fitted with modern conveniences.

DEAD PHYSICIAN IS BANQUET GUEST

Comes From Beyond to Attend Los Angeles Dinner

MESSAGE FROM GRAVE READ

Old Rheumatism Thing of Past, Says Departed

LOS ANGELES — (Associated Press) — Dr. James Martin Peebles, physician and scientist, dead since February 15, not only attended in the spirit a banquet to celebrate his centennial, but has sent back "from beyond" at least one message, guests assembled to honor his memory said last night.

Dr. Guy Bogart, head of the Longer Life League, stood beside an empty chair at the banquet and announced that Dr. Peebles is "with us, sitting in this chair."

Later Dr. Bogart read a message he stated he had received from Dr. Peebles since the latter's death thru the late Herman Kuehn, publisher, of Chicago. He explained that because of Dr. Peebles' "short life beyond," he was unable to communicate directly.

WISCONSIN GRATHIER

A word to Guy (Dr. Bogart) and the "Longer Life League friends," the message read, "I knew in my imminent vision that I would celebrate my centennial beyond the gates—but that I would be with the Longer Life League 'in the spirit' as well. It made little difference to me on which side of the gate I made the celebration. Guy recalls that I told him a couple of years ago that I was anxious to explore the moon and go journeying among the stars. Well, I am getting my wishes gratified. And the old rheumatism is a thing of the past."

"In the service of love you will find your excuse for living. It will make your life full and overflowing. Watch the physician slide the 'diet and exercise'—to lengthen the years. It is a crime to die under a hundred years."

OFFERS TESTIMONY

"This one word more: I am glad to add my testimony to the fact that there is no death."

Dr. Peebles before his death told friends he intended to attempt to communicate with them as he had been deeply interested in various forms of psychic research.

The program included a speech by Dr. George A. Morrison, who will be 102 on June 4 next. A memorial service for Dr. Peebles was held last night at a Los Angeles auditorium. During the day his ashes were scattered according to a request in his will, over a rose garden, the location of which was kept secret.

OPEN FORUM MEMBERS TO DISCUSS PLANS TONIGHT

Persons interested in the Lima Open Forum will hold a meeting Friday at 7:30 p. m. at Room 206 Opera House building. Matters of interest to the society will be up for discussion.

Judge William Klingner, president of the forum, called the meeting.

CHARLES M. SCHWAB REALIZES THE IMPORTANCE OF MUSIC AND HAS SAID—"I HAVE ALWAYS BELIEVED THAT IT IS NECESSARY TO A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS THAT A MAN BE POSSESSED OF A LOVE OF MUSIC." A BRUNSWICK WOULD PROVIDE THE MUSIC. HAVE YOU THE LOVE? THE MAUS PIANO CO.

LIMA SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS WILL ATTEND CONVENTION IN CANTON

Sunday school workers of Allen-co are looking forward with anticipation to the sixty-third state Sunday school convention-institute, to be held in Canton on June 12, 14, 15 and 16. F. C. Kattner, local worker, said Friday.

Last year's meeting was one of the outstanding conventions of the country. It is the purpose of Sunday school leaders to make this year's convention greater than ever before, according to A. T. Arnold, Columbus, general secretary and executive head of the association. Arnold is spending several days in Lima.

A delegation of 30 persons will attend from Allen-co. All available talent for instruction is being secured. A great religious pageant, "The Value of Visualized Instruction in Religious Education" will be given.

Special railroad rates and entertainment on the Harvard plan have been secured.

The international convention will be held in Kansas City June 21 to June 27, and will be a historical gathering, because of the fact it will be the first convention since a major of the Sunday school forces of the continent was accomplished some weeks ago at Chicago.

LIMA SECURITIES ARE REJECTED

Industrial Commission Passes Up $56,000 Bonds

Refusal of the state industrial commission to purchase $56,000 worth of bonds offered that body by City Auditor E. C. Sellers, will force the city to seek buyers elsewhere. Sellers received notice from the industrial commission Friday it would not buy the issue, or any part of it.

WORK MAY BE DELAYED

In the refusal of the commission to take the securities, Sellers sees possibility of a tieup of city work.

If the bonds cannot be sold to some one, the work can't be done, he said.

Monday night the commission will take up legislation, authorizing the issuance of $194,000 worth of bonds to finance water main extensions. The matter was to have been disposed of at the last meeting of the commission, but was tabled. The legislation had not been worked out, it is said. The city commission, it is predicted, will pass the measure without dissent.

Disposal of these bonds may be easier, Sellers said, because only $80,000 is to be sold in the near future. The balance may not be issued until fall.

The problem of disposing of approximately $150,000 interest-bearing and disposal plant bonds to finance the mammoth project may cause delay in starting the work. Financing of the project is bound to meet with difficulties, according to Sellers.

FISH BITE RAVENOUSLY

ST. MARYS Members of the "Don't Worry" club have taken a new lease on life. The fishing season has opened early at Lake St. Marys. Parties from Lima and other places, in large numbers, fishing here and at Celina, report big catches of crappies, bass and bullheads.

ARMED PARTY ON MONSTER HUNT

Off for Patagonia to Capture Anachronistic Creature

ELEPHANT RIFLES CARRIED

Andren Lake to be Mined in Search of Beast

BUENOS AIRES — (Associated Press) — Elaborate arrangements for the capture or destruction of the anachronistic creature reported to have been in an Andean lake have been made by the expedition which left tonight (Thursday) for Patagonia under the auspices of the Buenos Aires Zoological Garden.

The members of the party are all well armed, carrying elephant rifles and lassos. A quantity of explosive is also being taken, with which to mine the lake and thus scare out the monster—he is plestosaurus, glyptodon or megatherium as variously reported.

WILL BUILD BOAT

The zoo's taxidermist is taking along embalming materials for use in case the beast is killed. Another item of the outfit is a graining machine with which to propel the boat to be constructed on the shores of the lake. The expedition will proceed by rail to Neuquen, thence by camions to Bariloche and from there on horses into the territory of Chubut, where the lake is situated fifty miles from a settlement called "18 de Octubre."

Professor Onelli, director of the zoo, who organized the expedition, has directed that it fail to find the animal after six weeks search, the party shall proceed to other parts of Patagonia. He said to the correspondent:

"I am laughed at, but I am convinced that some large, strange animals exist in Patagonia. When Theodore Roosevelt visited Argentina he was presented with a fragment of hide picked up in Patagonia with long hair still attached to it. The hide was a half inch thick and curiously reinforced beneath the surface with tiny rods of bone. It must have belonged to some huge animal recently alive. What was it?"

OTTAWA BANKER IS TWICE FINED IN ASSAULT CASE

OTTAWA — (Special) — Frank G. Kahle, cashier of the Bank of Ottawa, pleaded guilty when arraigned in the court of B. L. Griffith, justice of the peace at Ottawa, on a charge of assault and battery, perpetrated by John T. Maidlow.

Kahle was charged with attacking Maidlow at a meeting of the stockholders of the Sentinel Publishing Co., when it is alleged, he could not influence the vote of Maidlow for directors. Kahle was displaced as one of the directors of the weekly paper at the meeting.

Kahle paid a fine of $15 and costs, imposed by the justice of the peace. He had previously pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace and paid a similar amount of fine, the mayor of Ottawa says. He appeared before the mayor.

Maidlow has announced he may file a suit for damages against the banker. Maidlow is carrying a black eye and a bruised face as a result of the alleged attack.

A. P. SANDLES SPEAKER AT HARROD; STOCK, GRAIN EXHIBIT OPENED FRIDAY

A. P. Sandles, Ottawa, was chief speaker at the baking contest and stock and grain exhibit of A. P. Sandles schools and Auglaize farm bureau, which opened Friday at Harrod.

Sandles arrived in the city Friday morning, coming from Genoa, where he addressed a meeting of farmers Thursday night. He left Lima Friday afternoon for Ada, where he spoke Friday evening.

The address given by Sandles included methods to be used by the boys and girls in their club work. As a result, a greater incentive for the raising of stock and grain by the boys and of baking and sewing among the girls, has been planted.

Other speakers were W. H. Palmer, Columbus, in charge of boys' and girls' club work of the state in connection with work of the farm bureau; C. A. Arganbright, superintendent of schools and H. J. Ridge, county farm agent.

Prizes will be awarded boys who are able to judge stock best and raise the best grain. Girls who baked the best cakes and bread will also come in for prizes.

C. C. FAVORS NEW COURT HERE

Endorses Cable Bill Backed by Bar Association

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce in a resolution passed Thursday, endorsed a bill before Congress to establish a federal court in Lima. The Allen-co Bar association is backing the measure.

It is pointed out by the directors that Lima is geographically situated to take care of a larger section of the state than any other city.

Railroad and interurban service make the city readily accessible from all parts of the state and Lima is the second largest city in this federal division of Ohio.

The Chamber of Commerce pledges its active support and endorsement to secure the passage of a bill pending before Congress.

A copy of the resolution is to be forwarded to Congressman John L. Cable.

Somewhat similar action was taken by the city commission. Solicitor Paul T. Landis was instructed to prepare a resolution placing the commission on record as favoring the establishment of a federal court in Lima.

SEVEN OF FAMILY SHOT BY GANG

Home Raided in Belfast as Outgrowth of Clashes

SQUAD OF POLICE AMBUSHED

Constables and Sinn Feiners Battle for Six Hours

BELFAST — (Associated Press) — A band of men forced their way into the home of Owen MacMahon, a saloonkeeper, early this morning and shot seven members of the family. News of the raid has stirred the city.

MacMahon and three of his sons were killed outright, another son died of his wounds, and two others are near death. The crime is thought to have been in reprisal for the shooting of a number of special constables in May at yesterday.

DOOR SMASHED

At about 1:20 o'clock the raiders who are reported to have worn uniforms, smashed the door of the MacMahon home in the north end of the city and rushed upstairs where the occupants of the house were sleeping.

The male members of the family were taken down to the living room, lined up against the wall and riddled with bullets. Mrs. MacMahon and daughter rushed down to the living room when the attackers departed and found the seven lying on the floor in pools of blood, three of the bodies in a heap.

POLICE AMBUSHED

A six-hour running fight occurred between Ulster special constables and Sinn Feiners in the vicinity of Carrickmore, county Tyrone, yesterday. The fighting started when fifty of the police in two motor lorries were ambushed outside the town. The ambushing party was concealed behind a gorse bank on the roadside and opened fire at a distance of 1,000 yards.

The police immediately jumped out of their cars and engaged the attacking party which retreated across the hills.

One Sinn Feiner wounded was captured and at least four others were believed to have been hit. None of the specials was injured.

Three murders were reported today from the Fermanagh-Tyrone border. The victims were Frank Kelly, Edward McLoughlin and William Cassidy.

All were shot to death. It is believed the murders were in reprisal for the recent terrorism at Trillick, county Tyrone, in which Samuel Laird, an Ulster special constable, was shot and killed and numerous Unionist houses were burned.

JOHNSON, BINGHAM TO SPEAK IN FUND PLAN SERVICE BUREAU MEET

J. Kennard Johnson and C. A. Bingham, city manager, have been selected to address representatives of organizations in Lima at a meeting called for Friday to discuss a crisis in the financial affairs of the Social Service bureau.

The bureau is in need of money to clean up a huge deficit caused by heavy demands by jobless families thru the winter. The bureau has kept food on the table in countless homes, but in doing so has gone into debt. Mrs. Irene Mills Jackson, secretary states.

Friday's meeting is called with the hope of finding some way of helping the bureau to shoulder the load.

ROTARIANS TO HAVE BOYS AS THEIR GUESTS

Rotarians are developing unusual plans for their regular noonday meet at the Hotel Norval, Monday. Each member is expected to invite a boy to attend the luncheon and hear the address by Hugh E. Van de Walker, of Ypsilanti, Mich., chairman of the International Rotary Boy Work committee. He will speak on "Boy Work."

BANK PUT UNDER ARMED GUARD

Thousands Storm Chicago Institution to Withdraw Deposits

FALSE RUMOR STARTS RUN

Women Are Crushed and Trampled in Scramble

CHICAGO—(Associated Press)—A special detail of 25 police, armed with rifles was called upon today to control thousands of persons who besieged the Northwestern Trust and Savings Bank to withdraw their deposits following a false rumor that the condition of the institution was unstable. Several women were crushed and trampled in the scramble to enter the bank. Their injuries and the fear of hundreds of other depositors were the outgrowth of false rumors concerning the bank's financial strength. Bank officials were paying out money as fast as the depositors could be served and other banks were said to be ready to supply all the cash needed. John F. Smalski, head of the bank, announced an offer of a reward of $5,000 for information of the identity of the person responsible for the false rumors. The bank was declared by bank examiners as "the strongest bank in Chicago" in proportion to its size. The last statement showed resources of approximately $20,000,000 and deposits of about $18,000,000. Federal Reserve banks of the city sent $2,000,000 in an armored car to the besieged bank about noon. A run of smaller proportions started shortly after noon at the Second Northwestern Trust and Savings Bank, a subsidiary of the Northwestern. At this bank also depositors were being paid as rapidly as possible.

there has been no attempt to introduce it for the past two years. It was in effect during the war as a war measure, however.

SLAYER OF PAIR DIES IN CHAIR

Chamblin Electrocutted for Murder of Portsmouth Couple

CONFESSES, SMILES AT DEATH

General News Items Gathered From Ohio Cities

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Confession apparently relieved the troubled mind of Roy Chamblin, 27, of Portsmouth, slayer of Miss Louise Doyle and John W. Newman, near Portsmouth, last October, who was executed in the electric chair at the Ohio penitentiary early this morning. After spending most of yesterday weeping and bewailing his fate, he met death fearlessly.

Shortly before midnight he told Major Walter Collins of the Volunteer Prison League and prison Chaplain T. O. Reed that he wished to confess. Telling his story in detail, according to Chaplain Reed, he said he had held up Newman and Miss Doyle in the former's automobile, along the road, near the house where their bodies were found. After taking their valuables, he said he feared they had been recognized and ordered them to the abandoned house where he shot them. Previously he had declared he fired into the house after some one had thrown rocks at him.

"I have made my peace with God," he told Major Collins after he made the confession.

Newman and Miss Doyle disappeared from Portsmouth, October 21 last. Their bodies were discovered October 28. Chamblin was arrested in Cincinnati, November 6 and pleaded guilty and was sentenced to be executed, November 14.

SEVEN LITTLE EXILES ALL IN A ROW - NEWS OF THE DAY THRU EYE OF THE CAMERA

ALMOST A KING—The most recent photograph of Otto, former crown prince of Austria. The overthrow of the monarchy and the banishment of Emperor Carl leaves Otto without title or estate.

WHAT CARES HE FOR HIS NECK!—A daredevil equestrian of the Bulgarian army takes his steed down a 10-foot descent. He was in danger of breaking his neck, but this exhibition was for King Boris and the royal family.

First photograph of Carl and Zita, former emperor and empress of Austria, with all seven of their children since they were sent to exile in Madeira. Second from the right is Otto who would have succeeded his father had the monarchy prevailed.

RED FLAG UNCHALLENGED IN LONDON—A woman with a red flag attended a meeting of radicals in Trafalgar Square, London, to protest against the imprisonment of Albert Inkpin, secretary of the Communists. She was unmolested by the "bobbies."

H. C. OF KISSING—Liane Hall asks 2,000,000 kronen for a kiss upon the hand or brow, but that's not so much in these days of low exchange rates. The film star sold the kisses for an Austrian charity.

HOT PIPE!—A famous firm of pipe makers and tobacco blenders in London is now making special jeweled pipes for women. More than 200 women have standing orders for cigars and an equal number smoke pipes.

SCHOOL CHEAPER THAN JAIL

This is Message of New Yorker Brought to Ohio

SPEAKS ON EDUCATION DUTY

Says Tax Pays for Insurance Against Social Chaos

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—It is cheaper to school a child than to jail him, said Dr. Arthur C. Perry, district superintendent of schools at New York city and lecturer on school administration at New York university, at the second annual educational conference at Ohio State University here today.

"Brutally framed, that is the one convincing answer to the man who asks why he should share the burden of educating his neighbor's children in whom he has no interest," added Dr. Perry. "Whether he realizes it or not, he has a very real interest in these children. It is of vital concern to him whether as he meets them he meets civilized, decent, orderly people or illiterates, mendicants or cut-throats. His school tax is the premium he pays for his policy of insurance against social chaos."

"The principal of the public school is meeting one of his responsibilities if his relationships with the people of his community are such as to make them ardent proponents of the cause of public education."

"When the principal has grown to be chief servant he has become the leading citizen. When every teacher knows him as a resourceful friend, then is he the servant of his subordinates. When he is sought by the perplexed parent and the faltering pupil for counsel, then is he the servant of the community."

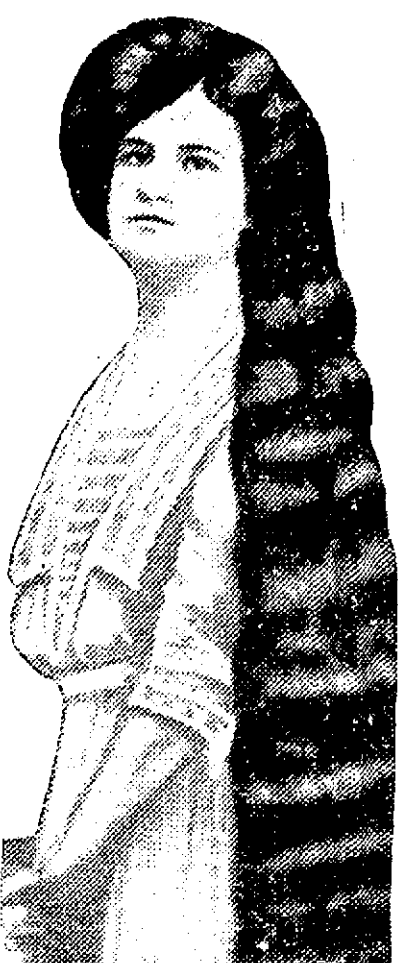

GIRL HANGED IN FALL

TOLEDO — Ruth Griss, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Griss, was accidentally hanged here late yesterday when she fell from a small tree in the rear of her parents' home. A cat the child was wearing caught on a branch of the tree, twisting about her neck and strangling her before aid could reach her.

"DANDERINE"

Grows Thick, Heavy Hair

35-cent Bottle Ends all Dandruff, Stops Hair Coming Out

Ten minutes after using Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens, helping the hair to grow long, strong and luxuriant. One application of Danderine makes thin, lifeless, colorless hair look youthful, fully bright, lustrous and just twice as abundant.—Adv.

Hey--Rube

—a call used by rogues warning pals of detection.

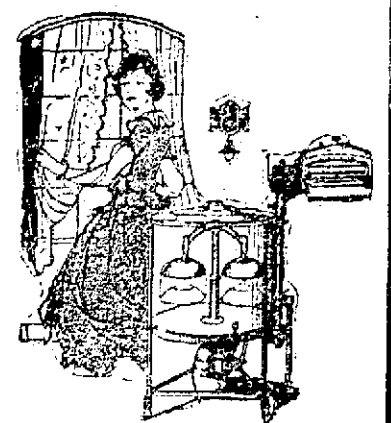

ONCE A RUBE ALWAYS A RUBE

Habit is a cable; we weave a thread of it each day; at last it gets so strong, we cannot break it. CERTAINLY they can be broken—say I WILL.

An example—should you eat peas with a knife—try a spoon—holds more; or drink coffee from a saucer—use the cup, saves the muss, remove the spoon—may save an eye.

Are you still burning wood? A RUBE trying to make a RUBE of you by telling you that a HEATER under a WASHING MACHINE is a failure. FIVE companies already have adopted the HEATING UNIT and you will have a back number washer without this HEATER. And do you know that they are coming to the barrel type washer; copied from the "EASY." Several have adopted this type in the past six years, and more now ones coming on, so don't fool yourself—buy the "EASY" Vacuum Washer, the one that operates those vacuum cups from the bottom of the tank which gives you free access to this beautiful open washer.

Getting Rid of a Stubborn Cough is Child's Play Now

Make the Medicine Yourself at Home It's Cheap—But You Can't Beat It.

If you want to take care of that bad, hang on cough and do it in a few hours, better get one ounce of Farmint (double strength) and mix a half pint at home.

You can do this in two minutes by adding a little sugar and enough water to fill a half pint bottle.

You'll travel the world over before you get a medicine that will act so surely and quickly on the mucous membrane of the nose and throat. It halts the inflammation, the tickling sensation stops with the first spoonful, the heavy breathing goes and clean memory, free from irritation and mucus follows.

For catarrhal conditions such as mucous droppings, clogged nostrils and watery eyes, it won't disappoint—ask for Farmint (double strength). Speak plainly so that the druggist will know exactly what you want.—Adv.

Man 83 Years Old Tells of Using Nerve-Worth

This is such a remarkable case and one that tells his story so well we are going to give it to our readers just as we told it to us in a letter. "I am a carpenter, 83 years of age, and didn't expect to find anything to relieve me of constipation and indigestion, but expected to go on to the end of my miserable existence," said J. C. Moore, of Dayton, O. "I was very much troubled with constipation and indigestion which caused nervousness, sleeplessness and other attendant ills such as such conditions. A friend recommended Nerve-Worth and I bought it. I had only taken a few doses when I saw a great change coming—I could enjoy my meals without fear of gas-bloating and belching. My digestion seemed to be perfect again and I could sleep soundly all night. It was simply wonderful and I wish everyone who suffered as I did would give it a trial."

Nerve-Worth is sold and recommended by Hunter's Drug Stores, Lima; C. M. Young, Van Wert; Casson's Drug Store, Lima; Drug Store, Kenton; Powell's Pharmacy, Bellefontaine; Minner's, Defiance; King & Stalkamp, Delphos.—Adv.

BURBANK'S BETTER GARDEN TIPS VEGETABLES

ARTICLE NO. 6

LUTHER BURBANK IN HIS GARDEN

By LUTHER BURBANK
World's Greatest Scientific Agriculturist

The first question of the beginner generally is "What should I plant?"

The amateur, with a small plot of ground, will find a good vegetable assortment to consist of some of the following plants: Beets, onions, lettuce, carrots, radishes, parsnips, turnips, asparagus and, in mild climates, artichokes.

Do not attempt to grow in a small garden such vegetables as corn, squash, pumpkins, melons and similar plants, all of which take up too much space.

Beets, onions and radishes are particularly easy to grow.

In arranging the beds remember to keep your paths as straight as possible and plant in rows from 12 to 18 inches apart. It is well to plan the garden paths in advance, always remembering that you must reach all parts of it without tramping upon the plants.

Sunday Burbank tells how to raise asparagus.

To City Manager Bingham

DEAR CLARENCE: Some time ago I called your attention to the fact that some of my streets in the outlying districts and some that are not so far out are poorly lighted. I could name several that are so dark that one is in danger while walking over the rough sidewalks. Will you please have a survey made and steps taken to relieve this condition?

DEAR FRIENDS: The fact that you have lined up, unanimously, in favor of reappraisement of Ohio real estate, causes the belief that such a thing is necessary.

Doubtless you have thoroughly investigated the proposition and realize that taxation values should be boosted, to realize more funds for government activities, local, state and national. I note, too, that you favor making the tax rate limit 15 mills on the dollar, so that there will be no inequalities.

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well

SHUN DUST IN

The ordinary fine dust in the air that you can sometimes see as tiny flecks dancing in a sun beam, does no harm. It is always in the air, stirred up in sweeping, or the clouds of dust are whirled along in the street by the wind, there is real danger that any disease germs present may be carried and breathed into the nose or mouth.

That is the reason why classrooms and corridors should never be swept when children are in them. When you are on the street in a dust storm keep your mouth shut so as to take in as little of it as possible.

The danger of breathing quantities of dust is often heightened by the fact that any hard particles contained in the dust may hurt the delicate refining apparatus of the lungs. Men who work at dusty trades, like steel grinding and a little cutting, easily fall victims to tuberculosis, because their lungs have become injured by the inhaling of hard dust.

In some industries, as white lead making and rubbing down paint, there are poisonous dusts or gases which may get into the air and do much harm.

The only poison likely to be found in the air of houses is illuminating gas from leaking fixtures or from leaking or carelessly handled gas stoves.

If there is the least smell about gas fixtures or stoves, or if the coals are too tight or too loose, call the gas man.

Great care should be taken not to leave gas so low that it may blow out.

A gas oven should never be lighted unless the door is wide open, because if, by chance, gas has been escaping into the oven, an explosion may occur.

Dandruff Soon Ruins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do it means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is cheap and inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. The simple remedy never fails.

WOULD EXECUTE INSANE SLAYERS

Dr. Macayael Favors Electrocutation of Crazy Criminals

COLUMBUS — (United Press)—Ohio officials are planning to begin a fight to legalize the execution of criminally insane persons, it was learned today.

Dr. H. S. Macayael, state director of public welfare, said he would advocate such a law in the next general assembly. Indications were the fight would be carried on in other states.

Criminally insane persons are a burden on the state, Dr. Macayael declared in discussing a law to legalize the execution of murderers whom are insane.

He pointed out that many murderers are able to escape death through pleas of insanity, but securing their release from state institutions.

"If the paranoiac has proved his danger by actually killing some one, he should be put out of the way just the same as a sane person," Dr. Macayael said.

"I would not attempt to advocate extermination of all the type, but they should be placed in confinement from which they can never escape."

The law now allows a man who has been declared insane when he committed his crime, to be absolved of the crime and placed in a hospital for the criminally insane. Then, after a period of months or years, relatives can demand a test of his sanity be made and it frequently happens the man will apparently have recovered and the law frees him.

FARM BODY SPLIT

U. S. Growers Inc. Convention Breaks Up in Row

CHICAGO—(United Press)—The United States Growers, Inc., largest farmers' co-operative organization in the world, was split wide open today.

The first annual convention of the organization broke up in a fight with the resignation of three Illinois directors and announcement of the refusal of the North Dakota director to serve.

William G. Eckhardt, Dekalb, Ill., former treasurer, was defeated for re-election, 22,844 to 18,941. Protest was made by anti-administration delegates, especially those from Illinois, against "steam-roller methods" of the convention.

Fears were expressed by leaders of the movement for the future of the organization. The United States Grain Growers has 100,000,000 bushels of grain under contract and has 64,000 members.

LIMA OFFICIALS SEEK AUTHORITY TO CHANGE SEWAGE DISPOSAL PLANS

Whether Lima is to adopt the oxidation plan or sewage disposal or retain the system as planned by expert engineers, may be decided at a conference between city officials and state health engineers at Columbus Friday.

Armed with data and samples showing results from oxidation treatment, Manager Bligham, Engineer B. F. Darling and Commissioner Harrod Cunningham left for the state capital Thursday night.

They hope to convince the state board of health that a change in the plans, allowing Lima to adopt the new method, will save money and give better results.

The jury which heard trial of the case of L. T. Neeser against Gus Nastos, proprietor of the Hudson lunch room, in common pleas court, returned a verdict of no cause of action.

THE RIDER OF GOLDEN BAR

BY WILLIAM PATTERSON WHITE

Soon they heard a scramble and a splash in the creek. Dan Silke was coming back.

Silke jammed his Winchester into one of the empty scabbards and unrolled the bridle reins of the horse. Holding the reins in one hand, he gripped a saddle horn and simultaneously stuck toe in stirrup. Knuckled then a mighty creak of saddle leather, a snort, and Silke found himself on his back on the ground with one foot higher than his head. A gun barrel smote him smartly over the ear.

When Silke emerged into the full possession of his senses, he was the most disgusted man in the territory. "Do you feel like admitting that the district attorney helped you break jail?" asked Billy.

"Nothin' to say," declared Dan Silke, the unrepentant.

They found the body of the man with his face in the water. Billy dragged out the body and turned it on its back.

"This feller ain't Jack Murray," cried the perplexed Mr. Wingo. "It's Skinny Shindle. Where's Jack Murray?"

They left Skinny Shindle lying beside the little creek and went to the other dead man beside the branding fire.

Billy turned the dead man face upward. He whistled. "Here's an odd number. This feller is Simon Reeffoot's foreman, Conley. I'd sure like to know why he's riding for the U."

Came then a puncher riding on his occasions.

"I know him," said Dawson. "Conley, Tommy. It's me, Johnny Dawson."

"Lo Johnny," Tommy said, with a straight mouth. "Did that man with his arms tied kill Daley?"

"Is that his name?" asked Billy, flicking his thumb toward the dead man.

"Jim Daley," said Tommy. "Did he?"

"Sure, I killed him," Silke truculently answered the question.

"This is sure hard on Daley," observed Tommy. "He told me he came north for his health."

"North?"

"Yeah, couldn't stand the climate in Arizona, he said," amplified Tommy. "He only joined the outfit last week. Let's go see if I know the other feller."

"Sure, I know him," declared Tommy, after one look at the dead face. "He's named Brundley—been with the Horseshoe since February."

Toward dawn next day the horses showed signs of tiring. "Mine won't last another five miles," said Johnny Dawson.

They were making camp when stopped to examine a butcher knife taken from Silke. He caught his breath. On the handle of the butcher knife the letters T W were cut deep into the wood.

"How many butcher knives did you take from Walton's?" he demanded.

"One," replied Silke.

"Why, hell's bells!" exclaimed Billy, "then you didn't kill Rafe Tuckleton."

"First I knew he was dead," Silke said thoughtfully. "As a rule, I don't kill my customers."

"She said he only took one knife," Billy told himself stupidly. He was no nearer the solution of the Tuckleton murder. His theory that Silke had killed Tuckleton was smashed to smithereens by the discovery of the Walton butcher knife in Silke's bootleg. Unless Silke had taken two knives. But Silke had not taken two knives.

Early one morning several days later the sheriff pro tem of Crocker county was roused by rappings on the office door. Shotgun Shillman did not open the front door. He went round the back way with his gun in his hand and, on circling the house, he found at the front door a hatless Dan Silke flat on his back in the dust, tied hand and foot, and with a gag in his mouth.

Later in the day Guerilla Melody called on Nate Samson, asked the storekeeper several apparently aimless questions and leafed thru the catalog. Still later in the day Johnny Dawson rode out of Golden Bar. Only two people besides himself knew that he was bound for the railroad and telegraph line.

CHAPTER XVII

"There's a lot of this stuff I don't understand," said Guerilla Melody after Dawson's return. "Why did Conley go south? Conley ain't committed any crime round here that I know of."

"I'm betting he did, alla same," said Billy. "Or else why was he so particular to tell those T U boys he was from Arizona?"

Guerilla looked bewildered. "What did Conley have against Tip?"

"I don't know," said Billy. "But maybe friend Simon can tell us something."

Simon Reeffoot, riding the range that day, met a strange horseman. Did Simon know where Park Valley was? Simon knew.

"Shucks," said the stryman. "Here's a envelope and a pencil. Make a list of names, will you?"

"Here," said Simon, holding out the envelope, "This ought to fix you up."

"To his honor, the well-known voice of Billy Wingo at his back concurred. "It ought to," said Billy Wingo. "Kindly clasp your hands over your hat."

"You oughtn't to have given him that envelope," Billy admonished the stryman. "It has the confession in it."

Simon stirred uneasily on his saddle. Confession! Whose confession? He recalled that there had been several folded sheets of paper could not know that these sheets were white—innocent of either handwriting or printing.

Billy took the envelope and unfolded the sheets. It was apparent to Reeffoot that he was refreshing his memory.

"Simon," Billy said, glancing up suddenly, "why did Conley go south?"

"I dunno!"

"Yes, you do," Billy insisted, striking the sheets of paper with his fist. "We found Conley. He was working for the T U when he died."

"I didn't know that," muttered Simon Reeffoot.

"Conley talked before he died," said Billy. "He told me some interesting things about himself—and you."

Here Billy stuffed the sheets of paper into his trousers pocket and gripped Simon by the throat. "You damned murderer, what did you kill him for?"

At the fierce clutch of Billy's fingers, Simon's shaking legs refused to uphold him longer. He fell on his knees. "I—I didn't kill him!" he spluttered. "He was dead when—"

"You lie! Conley said so! You tried to throw the blame on me by leaving behind—"

Billy's voice trailed off into silence.

"That was Conley's idea!" screamed the panicky Reeffoot. "He got the hatband and quit one day when nobody was in the office. Conley shot him, too!"

"He was gonna squeal! He was gonna get me mixed into that Walton murder! They told me he was!"

He pulled first, I tell you! I was drunk! I didn't know what I was doing! Oh, my Gawd!"

Billy flung the groveling Simon from him. "This ought to be enough for you."

That evening there was another prisoner in the Golden Bar calaboose. "If they keep on coming in like this," said Shotgun Shillman to Riley Tyler, "we'll have to build an addition to the jail."

"What next?" asked Guerilla Melody. "With Tip's murder settled and knowin' who killed Tuckleton—"

"Certainly doesn't help us any with the stage hold-up," cut in Billy. "Before we sprung the joke in the Tuckleton deal, I've got to do a little more work on the hold-up."

A convivial voice in the street broke in on the holstorous song. "Who's that?" asked Billy.

"It's Jerry Fern," said Guerilla indifferently. "He's drunk again. Aunt died, left him money. Big legacy. Must have been for Crafty to lead him money to play with."

"Do you know Crafty's been lending money to Jerry?"

"Didn't I see him with my own eyes more than once?"

"Do you think you can get Jerry Fern in here and make him drunk?"

"I'll make him drunk," Guerilla said earnestly, "or there ain't a drop of virtue in Old Grow."

Guerilla flipped on his hat and departed.

"You can't tell me that infernal

Bill Wingo ain't at the bottom of all this business!" snarled Felix Craft. "Guerilla Melody and that Dawson friend of his didn't get Silke by themselves any more than I did."

"And there was a time when we thought Bill didn't have any brains," Sam Larder, growled the district attorney. "I always knew—"

The door flew open, and Jerry Fern, wild-eyed with liquor, stumbled into the room. The stage driver rolled straight to Felix Craft and pawed him. "Fuf-felix," he babbled, "I wan' shush-shome mon-money."

The furious Felix shook him off. But Jerry Fern was nothing if not persistent.

"The grinning faces of Guerilla Melody, Johnny Dawson, Shotgun and Riley looked in thru the open doorway."

"Come along, Jerry," called Guerilla. "We been hunting you all over."

"I wuh-wuh-wan' shush-shome mon-money," gurgled Jerry. "I wuhwan' mumm-money you promised me."

"I'll give you what you deserve," there was cream and butter in the gambler's voice, but there was grizzly menace in his restless eyes.

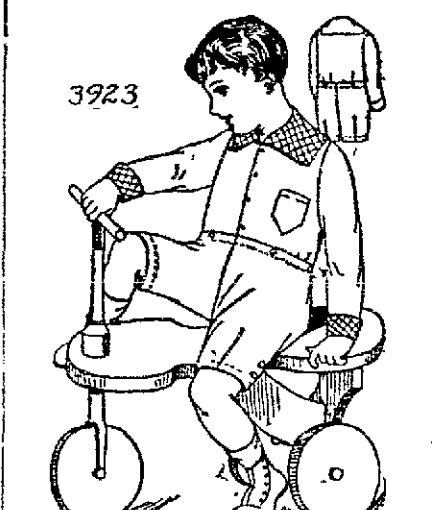

"Gug-guve mumm-me more than you gug-gave bub-before?"

"Yes, yes. C'mon!"

"Wuhwant mumm-money now!" yelled the contumacious Jerry, "or I'll pup-put you in jail!"

Concluded Sunday.

THE SORCERER'S JOY

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Then he searched for a lighthouse. Back in his cave, Twelve Toes, the Sorcerer, laughed and laughed. He had turned from a goat back into his favorite form of a fiery dragon. And then, doing that he must do something to stop Nancy and Nick on their journey over the Seven Mountains, he changed himself into a sailor.

And out at sea he went in a boat. Then he searched for a lighthouse. The rest was easy. All he had to do was to light the big lanterns up in the top that guided the ships at sea in the night, and turn them around toward the land, where he could see the Seven Mountains in the distance.

Looking thru his field-glass he saw two small dim specks like little flies on a lamp shade climbing up the Mountain of Glass. He knew at once that they were the Twins.

"Oh, ho!" he cried slapping his knee. "All the better, my hearties! I couldn't have found you in a more convenient place!"

Then he turned the lanterns still more, so that their long bright beams shone directly on the glass prism. That was what had blinded Nancy and Nick, when they lost their way, and that was why Twelve Toes returned to his cave and laughed and laughed.

"One side of the mountain goes down into a quicksand, and the other into a field of broken glass," he chuckled as he swallowed a lizard for his lunch and drank a quart of kerosene. "All the Magic Feet-ers and Green Shoes in Parydom can't help them now. They'll never get the phonograph record to Prin-

two small figures stumbling down the glass mountain toward the quicksand. Twelve Toes laughed harder than ever. (To Be Continued) (Copyright, 1922)

USE MOVIES FOR FOREIGN TRADE EXPANSION

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)

REPRESENTATIVES of the motion picture industry, the Department of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers will meet in Washington April 11 to develop plans for the utilization of movies to their fullest assistance to American industry.

That is fodder upon which will grow the generalization of the movies, may ruminate if, indeed, he is not now behind this new movement. It is the first participation in a movie project since he accepted his position.

The Department of Commerce has already developed tentative plans for the use of motion pictures in boosting American trade abroad. Julius Klein, now director of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, has arranged for the services of M. P. Leopold, expert industrial photographer of the bureau of mines. Klein will send a government engineer to any plant to arrange for filming of scenes showing production. His foreign representatives will arrange for distribution and exhibition abroad.

The cost of such pictures to manufacturers would be about $1 a foot. If the idea of exploiting American products is "sold" to manufacturers at the April conference, Will Hays may start work on his first scene.

It is suggested that the movie industry take the lead in the movement. A movie telling the story of American movie production should prove of immense interest to Europeans since the majority of films shown in Europe are of American make.

"White Oak" With William S. Hart

THESE are nothing unusual or unlooked for in the announcement that "White Oak," Bill Hart's latest cinema offering, provides excellent entertainment for the thousands of fans who, loyally to the famous Western star, never fail to follow him.

Mr. Hart, they tell me, wrote the story himself, and he certainly gave himself plenty to do. He's cast as Oak Miller, a gambler, straight-shooter and hard-riding, whose main mission in life is to administer a good spanking to the man who had deceived his sister Rose. Of course, the man appears on the scene, but Oak does not recognize him. The action then shifts to a prairie train, which the wicked Granger and a band of rednecks had planned to loot. Barbara, the girl whom White Oak loves with that devotion, everlasting love which only Bill Hart ever seems to have, is on the train.

From now henceforth the tale is as melodramatic as one would wish, with the hero arriving in the nick-

time to kill a few dozen of the Indians incidentally settling his score with Granger, the man who had broken his sister's heart. And, of course, Barbara, once rescued, has an important part in the final fade-out.

Vola Vale, the girl who used to play opposite Bill Hart, in all of his pictures, but who has been missing for a time, is the charming vis-a-vis in this production. She's a peppery little thing, with beautiful hair and a strong determination. It would seem she's lovely at all times, and lends a touch of sweetness to the hard and rugged story. Alexander is quite impressive as the oily villain.

Scenically, photographically, etc., "White Oak" is just about all that could be desired. It's hardly necessary to admonish the men to dig down into the k. k. jeans and go to see their Bill in "White Oak." They will anyway.

At the Faurot again today and Saturday.

"Grace Darmond In 'Handle With Care'"

THIS is one of the few pictures in which Grace Darmond has tried her hand, since the good old serial days, when she was the much abused, much sought-after maiden of many a whizzing thriller. "Handle With Care," a society drama, has a moral, if nothing else, and for that reason it may be deeply appreciated by the most of you. "Handle With Care" is the story of a woman, not especially charming or possessing any great amount of personality, who miraculously has the hearts of no less than six men at her feet. They're a motley array, ranging from freak authors to a self-centered lawyer of great repute. She finally decides on the latter.

Two years of married life are enough to convince Jeanne that she is not happy. Her husband is too busy to take her places, etc. — you know the usual formula by this time — so she decides to divorce him. He consents, providing she can prove to him that either of the rejected suitors can now be prevailed upon to elope with her.

She, firmly convinced that she can make any one of them practical, goes out of her mind, goes forth. But at each attempt to inveigle one of them into eloping, she is handed a nice little jolt. They really wouldn't care to. Yes, really, they love her still, and all that, but—

You also know right well that she is going to wake up and discover that her husband is the man she loves. That's just how the picture ends, telling the waiting world in general that a husband's trusting, if not demonstrative love, is to be desired above all else, and that there is no happiness for any woman who cares to seek it. To dissatisfied, complaining wives the picture may prove of interest.

Miss Darmond is lovely to look upon, but she needs to cut and grow thin. The men in the production are fairly competent, especially Harry Myers and William Cortright. Patsy Miller adds a pleasant note of youth and elasticity to an otherwise maturing production.

"Handle With Care" is appearing today and until Sunday at the Lyric.

Six Acts of Vaudeville at Orpheum

THE week-end program now in progress at the Orpheum theatre is comprised of six acts of first-rate vaudeville, a well-balanced bill with much that is novel and interesting.

The program opens with a comedy acrobatic offering that will furnish laughs as well as thrills. There are also several clever comedians whose various cracks and dialogues are highly amusing. Meehan and Margie offer "Freezy Bits from Broadway," an act that went extremely well at the opening performance on Thursday.

The current bill of vaudeville acts will continue at the Orpheum until Sunday, matinee.

MUTT AND JEFF—AND THIS SCALE WEIGHS TRUE, TOO—

BRINGING UP FATHER—

SHORT SHAVINGS

Claude Zartman, street superintendent, was left alone at home and undertook to wash the dishes. "If I hadn't dropped the soap on the floor," he said, "it wouldn't have slipped on it and spilled a dishpan of dishes when I fell."

George Metheny went into a bake shop to buy some little cakes. "Be careful how you handle those cakes," the bake shop proprietor warned the girl clerk. "The chocolate covered ones show the thumb marks so."

Dale Creman says he gets along all right without his rabbit hound. "The dog never was much help," he says. "It would back-track a rabbit, and if it found the spot where the rabbit started was still warm it would curl up there and go to sleep."

FIFTY YEARS AGO

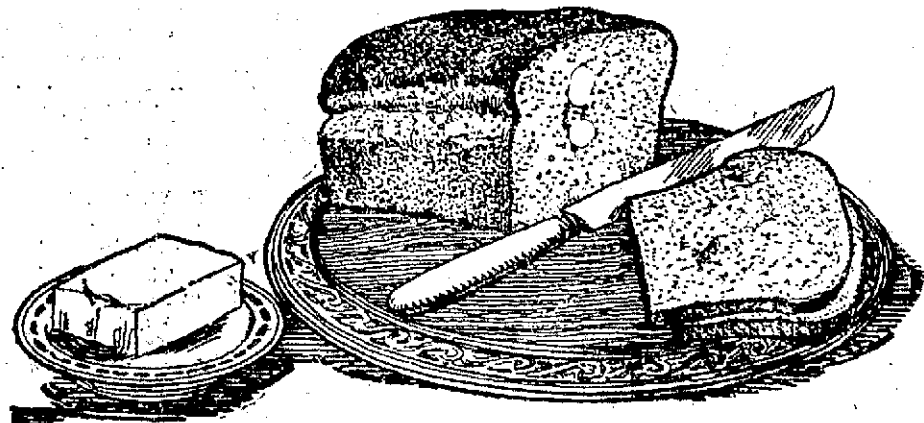

A woman in Lynn, Mass., was sleeping on her kitchen stove according to a recipe of her own, to furnish medicine for the women of the neighborhood. Today, a stone's throw from the little house where she lived, there is a four-story laboratory, making the same medicine for the women of the world. During the last year almost 500,000 tons of carefully selected herbs were used in the manufacture of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A woman's medicine for woman's ailments. Have you tried it?—Ad.

Do you get the best your grocer has?

Your grocer is particular about the foods he has in his store. That is why you trade with him. He sells Kingnut in the knowledge that it is a pure vegetable product made for his very best trade, and guaranteed by the makers.

Warning

Do not be misled by the word oleomargarine on the Kingnut package, made necessary by the survival of an old law. Kingnut contains no animal fats. It is made from the pure oils of the coconut and peanut, blended with pasteurized milk.

It is nice that Kingnut means a real saving of your money, but that is not why you are advised to try it. Use it for the reason that other particular people use it on their tables and in cooking—because of its delicious flavor, its purity, its uniform quality and texture every season of the year.

Kingnut is Kingnut—and until you have tried it you will not realize that its delight is as great as its economy.
